MRS. ROGERS BIDS LAST GOOD-BYE TO MOTHER IN WINDSOR PRISON

PATHEPIC SCENE IN CELL WHEN MRS. CALLAHAN PARTS FROM CONDEMNED DAUGHTER.

WINDSOR, Vt., Jan. 31.—With their bodies shaken by sobs and their faces marked as they held each other in a clinging embrace, Mrs. Johanna Callahan and her daughter, Mary Rogers, in the little cell where the death shadows have already gathered.

The parting between the mother and daughter was the most pathetic episode of the tragic case thus far. Katherine, the convicted woman's half sister, and her husband, who had been in the cell for several days, were also present.

To whisper the only word of consolation can fall upon hearts torn by each agonizing, a black-robed priest hovered about the little family.

He was the Rev. Father Thomas L. Barry. It was his comforting presence and the soothing presence of his hand that prevented the daughter from total collapse when her mother and sister left her, her hands never to meet again on earth.

GREETED WITH CRY OF JOY.

When Mrs. Callahan and Katherine were admitted to the cell there came a short, sharp cry of mingled joy and grief from the solitary inmate. Then the mother and daughter rushed into loving embraces.

"Dear mother—dear mother," cried the unhappy woman, "I was so glad to see you. I thought I should never see you again."

Mrs. Callahan spent last night in deep sorrow and grief for the loss of her daughter, who had been in the cell for several days.

She was with her mother and sister when they were taken to the cell of the condemned woman, and she was with them when they were taken to the cell of the condemned woman.

SLEPT LITTLE DURING NIGHT.

The guards stated that she had slept in little all night, owing to her sister's joy in her death.

After parting from her daughter, Mrs. Callahan was taken to the cell of the condemned woman.

Warsaw in State of Siege, Streets Ablaze, WOMEN FIGHT TROOPS

Revolutionists are in constant clash with the soldiers.

Cossacks attacked throughout the city from barricades in streets.

HELEN, Jan. 31.—The following is a report from the correspondent of the Warsaw correspondent, who has been in the city since the revolution broke out.

The city is in a state of siege, and the streets are ablaze. The revolutionaries are fighting the troops, and the city is in a state of confusion.

Patrolman Barry Kills Edward J. Bannon, Whom He Had Caught in Attempt to Loot Store—Companion of Dead Thief Escaped, and the Police Are Now Searching for Him.

Every detective in the city, as well as the force of all police stations, are hunting the companion of burglar Edward J. Bannon, killed early today by Policeman Henry F. Barry, of the Court Square Station, after he had caught the men in the act of attempting to break into the store of James M. Fitzgerald, No. 337 Washington street.

Bannon's body was identified at the Howard street morgue by several inspectors from Police Headquarters. He had been arrested several times for burglary, and had served two terms in Charlestown, once in Sing Sing, N. Y., and another in Joliet, Ill. He is declared by a Patrol Inspector Watts to have been one of the most desperate burglars ever taken to Police Headquarters.

ONE BURGLAR ESCAPED.

The companion escaped through Washington and School streets. A description furnished by Patrolman Barry has been sent to the police.

Patrolman Barry was severely cut by being struck in the face by a revolver in the hands of the thief. His injuries were dressed at the Hotel Sagamore. He was taken to the hospital, and his injuries were treated by the police.

The dead man was once a resident of Dorchester and the police are endeavoring to locate his relatives who have moved away from there. He was known under the alias of "Tommy" Barry. He was a companion of James M. Fitzgerald, who was killed by Barry.

BANNON'S LONG RECORD.

In 1890, when only sixteen years of age, he was sentenced to eight months in the House of Correction for larceny from a building. A year later he was sent to the House of Correction for three years. A little time was given him for good behavior, but he was returned for six years in 1896 for larceny and entering a dwelling. He was released by the police in New York and was sentenced to Sing Sing for breaking into a house in New York. After that he served time in Joliet, Ill. for a short time.

Patrolman Barry, who also became known as "Tommy" Barry, was a companion of James M. Fitzgerald, who was killed by Barry.

DAVITT, FRIEND OF FREEDOM, SAYS RUSSIA IS NOT YET READY TO THROFF TYRANT'S YOKE

FRIEND OF LIBERTY DECLARES REVOLUTION STILL UNPOPULAR WITH MASSES.

The most delicate and positive statement that has come out of St. Petersburg as to the probability of a revolution in Russia is the following declaration from Michael Davitt, himself a propagandist and fighter against tyranny, who declares that, in his opinion, the people of Russia are not yet ready for the overthrow of the Czar. This is the judgment of a distinguished and able man, a friend of liberty and a student of history, who is on the verge of a grand old age and who has spent his life in the cause of liberty and the overthrow of tyranny. He is a man of great experience and of great wisdom, and his opinion is of great value.

By Michael Davitt.

Commissioner of the BOSTON AMERICAN in St. Petersburg. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—Official society is laughing at the English correspondents' predictions of an uprising yesterday. If the people of other cities of Russia are as unprepared as in the capital, you may expect the overthrow of the government about a month after there is a successful revolution in Colorado or Florida and the organization capable of producing revolution exists.

Ninety-eight per cent. of the Russian people are peasants, attached to the soil, and unable to read and write. Any proposal to overthrow the throne or the Czar would be as unpopular among the stolid masses as a suggestion to abolish the papacy would be to the world of Catholics. Reform must come, and soon, but it will arrive along the lines of development.

Deeds of terrorism will probably continue as heretofore, but any actual revolution is out of the question for the present. It is rumored that the English and French correspondents will be asked politely to withdraw after the successful flight of the next Russian tsar. I am informed that six of the nine journalists arrested recently are Jews.

Father Pious to a Mystery.

I have tried hard to find out Father Pious's whereabouts, but it remains a mystery. His absence from the city has been the subject of much speculation, and many have tried to find out where he has gone. He is a man of great influence and of great power, and his absence is a matter of great importance.

Most of the mills and workshops of the capital have resumed operations to-day. In a few factories the workmen demanded their wages for the week they had been on strike, and being refused by the employers, they decided to work. It is believed this difficulty will be amicably settled in a few days.

All Labor Clubs Closed.

All the labor clubs and union headquarters are closed by orders of the police. The unions have been ordered to close their doors and to discontinue all activities. This is a severe blow to the labor movement in St. Petersburg.

Many provincial centers are debating the policy of sending immigrants to the Czar, begging for money to ameliorate the condition of the people. The new project of the Czar is to send immigrants to the Czar, begging for money to ameliorate the condition of the people. This is a new project of the Czar, and it is a matter of great importance.

Grand Duke Alexis and Admiral Alexan have visited the Emperor and it is reported they discussed the issue of the Czar's health. This is a matter of great importance, and it is a matter of great interest to the people of St. Petersburg.

WOMEN FIGHT THE TROOPS IN WARSAW

The troops and people had a pitched battle before military rule was established. This is a severe blow to the people's movement in London, and it is a matter of great importance.

The movement at Riga has taken on a distinctly political character through the influence of independent students, or, at least, of those who are not under the influence of the Czar. This is a matter of great importance.

W.L.D. DOUGLAS SHOES FOR MEN

UNION $3.50
MADE
W.L. Douglas makes and sells more men's $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer in the world.

The reason W.L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are the greatest sellers in the world is because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. If I could show you the difference between the shoes made by his factory and those of other makers and the high grade leathers used, you would understand why W.L. Douglas $3.50 shoes cost more to make, why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoe on the market.

I have worn a pair of W.L. Douglas $3.50 Patent Leather shoes for the best part of three years, and have found them satisfactory in every way.

W.L. Douglas $2.00 and $1.75 Shoes for Boys are the same quality as Douglas $3.50 shoes for men. Boys save $1.00.
